

Shiro Utafusa 歌房史朗

Date of Birth | 1983
Nationality | Japan
Education | Fashion, Technical School Osaka Mode Gakuen

Introduction

Born in Nagoya, Japan, on 27 December, 1983. After he finished primary and secondary schools, Shiro attended to the Technical School Osaka Modo Gakuen in 2003, where he studied Fashion for 4 years, he was motivated via the drawing class since the second years of design course. In the third year, he started doodling the character “curly hair” in his notebook. After graduating in 2007, he decided to become a full-time artist and he travelled around many countries including Australia, Indonesia, Singapore and Italy. He drew portraits of people whom he met while he stayed various places and tried to shape his art style.

Now Utafusa focuses on 2 art styles; one is in contemporary modern paintings, another is in traditional Japanese figures and themes. He also helps some temples in Japan to renovate art legacies such as paintings and drawings on
