Narate Kathong

B. 1975

Born in 1975, Narate Kathong has Graduate School Certificate in Printing Arts, Rajamangala University of Technology Pochang Campus, Bangkok. He is one of Thailand's most successful and popular contemporary artists, and his artworks have attracted tremendous attention in the international art scene since their first appearance in a solo exhibition in 2008. The predominant technique in his artworks is creating an image through millions upon millions of spots, a self-developed method based on Pointillism. Many find themselves rejuvenated in viewing his vibrant and cheerful works, breathing in the life he imbues into the lush greenery.
